SPECIAL TERM
IS POSTPONED
BY GOV. KELLYLEGISLATURE MEETS
FEB. 4 TO TAKE UP
FINANCING

Lansing, Mich., Jan. 10 (AP)—Governor Kelly agreed tonight to ask the special session of the legislature to establish Michigan's $51,000,000 veterans service fund as a "permanent trust fund," the income from which would be used to insure veterans and their dependents against want.

The governor made his announcement after a conference with the state veterans advisory council, representing veterans of World Wars I and II and the Spanish-American War.

Bonus Vote Postponed
The announcement said that Kelly had accepted the council's recommendation that the approaching special session was not the time to decide whether or not the state should pay a veterans bonus.

The announcement came a few hours after Kelly had disclosed he would postpone the start of the session from Jan. 28 to Feb. 4.

The council's recommendation declared the legislature's declaration that the fund was to be set aside originally to meet the state's obligation to veterans and their dependents.

Kelly said the postponement was made on the recommendation of Rep. John E. Eagle, and Senator Don Vanderwerf, Fremont, who told him their legislative appropriations committee would require an extra week to complete a review of the state's building requirements.

Extra Time Needed
Eagle is chairman of the house ways and means and Vanderwerf chairman of the senate finance and appropriations committees which have been meeting in joint session to hear requests for state monetary aid.

Kelly said the two chairmen had suggested to him that "it would expedite the work of the full membership to give their committees this extra time and I accepted their recommendations."

The special session will meet at 2 p. m. Monday, Feb. 5, at the capitol, Kelly said, in telegrams to legislators.

Lieut. Gov. Vernon J. Brown proposed to the finance committees today the creation of a waterways commission to develop Great Lakes refuge harbors under a federal-state program.

Michigan's share of $841,160 in construction costs for twelve harbors would be defrayed by a tax on small craft using the Great Lakes, Brown said. The tax is provided for in a bill creating the commission which will be introduced at the special legislative session.

Armory Funds Asked
The committees heard the following requests for state monetary aid:

Veterans' facility at Grand Rapids—$1,035,000 for a new dormitory, service building, chapel and recreation building, staff residences, property and additional cost of a power plant.

Military establishment—$11,235,000 for armories and other buildings.

Aeronautics commission—$250,000 for planning engineering.

Unemployment commission—$175,000 for the purchase of a Detroit building site for the construction of a main office building.

The unemployment commission asked that property facing Second Boulevard between Henry street

No Progress Made Yet
To Avert Steel Strike

New York, Jan. 10. (AP)—Officials of the U. S. Steel Corp. and the CIO United Steelworkers, meeting in last-minute efforts to avert a shutdown in the nation's steel industry, today adjourned for 24 hours without announcing what progress if any, was made.

Neither company nor union officials commented on today's three-hour session, other than to report that negotiations would be resumed at 2 p. m. tomorrow.

Benjamin F. Fairless, corporation president, and Philip Murray, president of the CIO and the steel union, headed three-man delegations to the conference seeking a settlement to halt 700,000 steel workers from walking off their jobs Monday. The men are demanding a $2 a day wage boost.

Indications were that a satisfactory agreement might pave the way for settlement of other threatened strikes involving more than 1,000,000 workers across the nation.

U. S. Steel refused to continue wage negotiations unless the government granted a price boost. The firm asked $7 a ton increase, the OPA was agreeable to $2.50, but Reconversion Director John W. Snyder and Stabilization Administrator John C. Collett reportedly favored $4.

Informed sources believe a compromise may be reached at about the $4 figure, but what the government favors was not disclosed officially.

The steelworkers entered the meeting expecting the corporation to offer a compromise wage boost, probably between $1.20 and $1.76 a day.

CIO representatives have admitted that any settlement reached in the steel dispute would have a direct effect on the threatened strike of 200,000 United Electrical Workers at General Electric, General Motors and Westinghouse companies, set for Jan. 15, and the AFL-CIO bid for higher pay for 500,000 shipyard workers.

Chicago, Jan. 10. (AP)—Two large meat packers rejected a government offer of price relief today and, after failure of this attempt to avert a nation-wide meat industry strike, U. S. Conciliation Chief Edgar L. Warren declared, "the situation looks very bad."

The government proposed to pay 50 cents a hundred pounds more for all meat it buys, including purchases for the army, navy and foreign relief.

Rejecting this plan, George A. Eastwood, Armour and company president, said it was "wholly inadequate to meet the demands" of the CIO Packinghouse Workers Union, whose 200,000 members are scheduled to strike next Wednesday.

Swift and company also turned down the proposal, declaring it "must be regarded as impractical because it would cover only the first three months of 1946 and carries no assurance as to volume. It is inadequate because based on our January sales to the government the proposal would allow a wage increase of 1½ cents an hour."

Warren told newsmen there were two possibilities for averting a strike if negotiations break down: "Certification to the White House for appointment of a fact-finding board, or government seizure of the plants involved in the dispute."

Break In Dow Dike Halts Rail Traffic
Midland, Mich., Jan. 10. (AP)—Traffic on the Pere Marquette Railroad was resumed early today, eight hours after a washout caused by a broken dike around a cooling pond of the Dow Chemical Co.

A passenger train was rerouted and three freight trains were delayed Wednesday night as a result of the "flood," which also covered a section of highway.

Excessive thaws which followed recent freezing weather were blamed by the company for the break in the dike.

Scotch Is Favorite Of Detroit Burglar
Detroit, Jan. 10. (AP)—George F. Felie is getting tired of "setting 'em up" for a burglar with a delicate palate.

He told police today that two quarts of fine, 10-year old scotch were missing from a liquor cabinet in his office. The intruder also took $158 from a cash drawer.

What burns Felie, he told officers, is that it's the burglar's third trip to the same liquor cabinet. The thirty stranger had already made off with nine bottles of scotch.

JURORS QUIZZED
IN MCKAY CASEJudge Orders Five Held
For Contempt; Unlawful Prejudice Charged

Lansing, Jan. 10. (AP)—Five persons charged with conspiring to "unlawfully prejudice" prospective jurors for the trial of Frank D. McKay of Grand Rapids today were ordered by Circuit Judge Louis E. Coash to show cause Jan. 19 why they should not be held in contempt of court.

Judge Coash issued the order on the petition of Victor C. Anderson, Ingham county prosecutor, just four days before the liquor graft conspiracy trial of the former Republican National Committeeman and four co-defendants was scheduled to start in Ingham county circuit court.

Anderson also charged the alleged conspiracy was an attempt to "discredit" Special Prosecutor Kim Sigler and "prejudice the case of the prosecution" in the trial.

Defendants named in the show cause order are Ira H. Marmon, former head of the Michigan State Police Identification Bureau; Edwin A. Goodwin, publisher and editor of the Michigan State Digest, a weekly political newspaper; J. A. Wilson, not further identified, and two John Does.

Judge Coash, who also is the new one man grand juror investigating state government, issued at the same time two bench warrants for the men listed as John Doe, for failure to appear before the grand jury.

Kaiser's Son Made Willow Run Boss
Detroit, Jan. 10. (AP)—Appointment of Edgar Kaiser as vice president and general manager of the Kaiser-Frazer Corp. was announced today by Joseph W. Fazer, president of the corporation.

Kaiser, eldest son of Henry J. Kaiser, chairman, will make his headquarters at Willow Run where the concern plans production of a medium and low priced automobile.

Detroit (AP)—The Detroit Street Railways Commission reported today that its new 10-cent fare rate has increased its revenues, but that it had resulted in a 2½ ton drop in the weight of coins handled daily. The present daily receipts average 800,000 dimes, 400,000 nickels and 600,000 pennies for a total of seven tons as compared with 9½ tons under the old rates.

Truce Ends Civil War In China; Communists Get Political Freedom
BY SPENCER MOOSA
Chungking, Jan. 10. (AP)—A truce in civil strife and a new era of political freedom for Communists and all other parties in China were announced today after two dramatic, eleventh-hour conferences arranged by Gen. George C. Marshall, American mediator.

The former U. S. army chief of staff—dispatched to China by President Truman as a special envoy—went into action when truce negotiations appeared to be breaking down last night.

Before noon there were these swift developments: Both sides ordered an immediate cessation of hostilities and a halt to all troop movements, except for transport of government forces in Manchuria and south of the Yangtze river.

Chou En-Lai, negotiator and head of the Communist delegation, praised Marshall's assistance and said the "cease-fire" orders were going into effect.

Chiang Kai-shek, opening China's unity session of the political consultation conference, announced that the government had decided to grant the people freedom of person, conscience, speech, publication and association and safeguard them against illegal arrest.

Chiang announced that all political parties—including the long-outlawed Communist party—would be equal before the law and could operate openly.

Chiang promised that local self-government would be promoted throughout China and popular elections would be held.

Manhunt In Chicago
Kidnap Case Starts
At Beginning Again

Chicago, Jan. 10. (AP)—Hector Verburgh, 65, janitor friend of "every kid in the block," was ordered released from custody late today and the hunt for the kidnapper of pretty six year old Suzanne Degnan centered on suspected sex offenders.

Verburgh's wife, Mary, 64, and Desere Smet, 35, another janitor, all held for two days, also were released on writs of habeas corpus when the state's attorney's office told Chief Justice Harold Ward of the criminal court the state had no evidence to warrant filing charges against any of the three. All three had been held only for questioning.

Verburgh, who tenants said "wouldn't harm a fly" and "loved children" was seized after investigators said they located the "dissecting room" where the kidnap victim was cut to pieces in the basement of an apartment building in the immediate neighborhood of the Degnan home.

Meanwhile, the return to searching for suspected sex offenders, a theory expressed almost at the outset of the investigation despite presence of a $20,000 ransom note left in the victim's room—indicated the hunt had started from the beginning again.

The ladder the killer presumably used to enter the bedroom of the little victim was traced to a nearby nursery and police started a check of two suspected sex offenders who once stayed there.

Mrs. Margaret Perry, operator of the nursery home two blocks from the Degnan residence, told police she had discharged a former employee of the nursery because of "questionable habits." Investigators said this man formerly was a mental patient at Manteno state hospital in Illinois but had been discharged as cured. They said he formerly was a practicing dentist on the north side.

The police also searched for more clues in the basement in which the girl was cut to pieces after being taken from her bed by a kidnaper who left a $20,000 ransom note.

Police Sgt. Jack Hanrahan still clung to the theory the abduction was a two man job and did not involve use of the ladder.

Richardson's directive, did not carry a single word written by G. I.'s but after the directive was clarified Stars and Stripes said it would resume with soldier-written news, letters and soldier cartoons and editorials tomorrow.

At a later press conference, Richardson explained his directive meant that there must be no derogatory remarks made against individuals in authority but that the paper was free to disagree with the policies of the government and express itself freely.

PHONE SERVICE TIEUP CANCELED
Picketing Is Called Off By Striking Union Until Monday

New York, Jan. 10. (AP)—Ernest Weaver, president of the Association of Communications Equipment Workers (Ind.), said tonight that the union had postponed plans for picketing telephone exchanges in 44 states tomorrow, apparently temporarily removing the threat of a nation-wide phone tie-up.

Weaver said the picketing had been called off until Monday morning.

He made the announcement after talking with Labor Secretary Schwechenbach by telephone and accepting an invitation to confer with the labor head and officials of the Western Electric company in Washington tomorrow.

Schwechenbach entered the controversy as Weaver told reporters that negotiations were broken off.

Weaver said after the breakdown of negotiations late tonight that it would be "practically impossible" to call off all the picket lines at such a late hour. Picketing had been scheduled to start in Michigan at 7 a. m. of Indiana at 12:01 a. m. (EST).

The ACEW is an affiliate of the National Federation of Telephone Workers (Ind.), which had planned to observe picket lines in 44 states.

Union officials said the lines would not be crossed by some 260,000 members of affiliated telephone unions.

John J. Moran, president of the Federation of Long Line Workers, declared earlier that 1,000 members of his union would leave their posts at the American Telephone and Telegraph company building at 7 a. m.

SENATE STUDIES SOLDIER MUTINY
Demobilization Inquiry Ordered; People Urged To End Hysteria

Washington, Jan. 10. (AP)—The senate military committee today ordered an investigation of demobilization and acting Secretary of War Kenneth C. Royall called on the people to end "hysteria to get the boys back home."

Royall will be a witness when a military sub-committee starts the hearings on demobilization and the complaints fired by soldiers around the world.

In an address to the Rotary club of Roanoke, Va., Royall said hysteria to get G. I.'s home is "endangering our whole occupation policy."

"If it continues," he said, "America will lose its power to prevent the totalitarian elements in Germany and Japan from building again for another conquest."

The ending of this hysteria is the responsibility of the people of America.

The military sub-committee was set up under the chairmanship of Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo.), who declared the demobilization situation has brought "near mutiny" in the army.

Floods Receding; 23 Dead; Damage Runs In Millions
BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Flood waters which caused 23 deaths in five southern states continued to recede yesterday, but property damage mounted and hundreds of persons were still homeless.

Damage appeared heaviest in the Cumberland River valley. Mayor W. C. Asher of Barbourville, Ky., estimated the property loss there at a million and a half dollars.

The Mississippi River, fed by the flood waters of its tributaries, was rising, but no serious damage was expected. At Memphis a 24-hour rise of 3.6 feet, sent the river to 21.2 feet. The river is expected to reach 32 feet, two under flood stage by Monday.

Santa Claus Admits Disorderly Conduct
Grand Rapids, Jan. 10. (AP)—A police court jury Thursday found Santa Claus guilty of disorderly conduct on Christmas Eve.

Officers testified that Victor Chicky, 42, was arrested in St. Nick garb while raising a disturbance in a jewelry store.

They said he complained about a glass coffee maker he had bought there and when police were called, he tore off his Santa Claus whiskers and challenged them to battle.

Chicky told the court he had been playing Santa Claus earlier in the evening and Judge Edward G. Burleson let him go to await a later sentence.

HOURLY RAISE IS FIGURED AT
17½ PER CENTPRESIDENT PRAISES
BOARD

Washington, Jan. 10. (AP)—President Truman's fact-finders tonight recommended settlement of the General Motors strike on the basis of a 19½ cent hourly pay raise, and said they were satisfied the company could pay it without increasing the price of cars.

The president endorsed the panel's voluminous report in full and strongly urged that it be accepted.

A White House adviser, whose name cannot be used, indicated strong optimism over the prospect of ultimate—though perhaps not immediate—acceptance of the plan.

No Statement Yet
He said preliminary conversations with principals on both sides, in which the proposed raise percentage was discussed, produced no statement of rejection. It was emphasized, however, that there had been no agreement to accept it.

This adviser said the fact that Kaiser-Frazer already has signed a wage agreement with the same union for production of small cars at the former Ford bomber plant at Willow Run, together with reported readiness of Ford to pay any amount agreed to by General Motors, probably will influence General Motors.

General Motors spokesmen said there will be no statement from the company until officials have had a chance to digest the voluminous report.

R. J. Thomas, president of the CIO-UAW whose 175,000 General Motors workers have been on strike for 50 days, also put off comment pending study.

The panel said it had satisfied itself the increase would not have "inflationary consequences." It said it was convinced that the company could pay "in the first 12 months after the resumption of production the recommended wage increase without increasing prices."

It assumed that 1942 prices would be maintained, that productivity would be no greater than in 1941, aggregate volume of production would equal that of 1941, but that other costs would be up since 1941.

The panel, whose decision to consider "ability to pay" prompted the company to withdraw from the fact-finding proceedings, said the corporation's profits would exceed the OPA base period of 1941, and with new operations opening up, might top its 1941 production in 1947 by 50 per cent.

Increased Output Foreseen
The panel did not preclude application by the company for higher prices, and said that was a matter for OPA to decide upon.

Corporation officials reserved comment in Detroit and Washington, pending study of the voluminous report.

CIO-UAW Workers President R. J. Thomas called a meeting of

WOOD ALCOHOL VICTIMS SAVED

New Alkali Treatment Found Effective By Navy Doctors

Chicago—Victims of poisoning by methyl alcohol, popularly known as wood alcohol and smoke can be saved from blindness and death by alkali treatment, four Naval medical officers report in the forthcoming issue of the Journal of the American Medical Association here.

Good results with this treatment in 26 out of 31 cases were achieved by Comdr. W. B. Chew, Comdr. E. H. Berger, Capt. O. A. Brines and Capt. M. J. Canyon. The other five died within three hours after being admitted to the hospital in a critically ill state.

One of those saved was unconscious for about 12 hours. The men had drunk wood alcohol in amounts estimated at from about three ounces to about one pint. Many also had drunk beer ranging in amounts to 21 cans.

Washing out the stomach, giving fluids and purgatives has been the usual treatment for this type of poisoning. The profound acidosis present has prompted the use by some physicians of alkali treatment which the Naval doctors also found gave good results.

The alkali is injected into the veins in the form of sodium lactate and given by mouth in the form of sodium bicarbonate. If the patient is unconscious, the sodium bicarbonate is given by stomach tube. The treatment must be given promptly and repeated, at about hourly intervals, three or four times until tests show the acidosis has been overcome.

Within a few hours the breathlessness, nausea, cramps and mental symptoms abated. Blurring of vision cleared within 24 hours in many cases. When discharged from the hospital, after about two weeks, all but four of the 26 had as good central vision as before the poisoning. Another two regained apparently normal vision within the next three months.

Bay City, Mich., Jan. 10 (AP)—Robert Burse, of Bay City, former Fourth Armored Division Corporal, saved his superior officer, Lt. Dale Garman, of San Bernardino, Calif., from death in a burning tank during the battle of the bulge.

If he was cited for the effort by the army, he has failed to make it known. But he is quite willing to admit he is $28,000 richer as the result of the heroic action.

Lieutenant Garman died recently in California of auto accident injuries after receiving his discharge from the army.

When his will was made public it was learned he had left his estate of $28,000 to his Bay City soldier friend.

Blue Cross Causes Hospital Deficits

Detroit, Jan. 10 (AP)—The Catholic Sisters of Mercy announced today that they are withdrawing the cooperation of their 14 hospitals in the state from the "Blue Cross" insurance plan of the Michigan Hospital Service.

Mother Superior Mary Carmelita said income of the plan has failed to meet the costs of its operation and that the hospitals cannot continue to shoulder a mounting deficit.

Robert E. George, superintendent of the Highland Park General hospital and chairman of a committee of the Greater Detroit Hospital Council, said other Detroit hospitals may be forced to take the same step.

Boy's Coughs Save 3 From Coal Gas

Detroit, Jan. 10 (AP)—A 4-year old boy, coughing and choking from the effects of poisonous coal gas, awakened his mother today in time to save his small family from asphyxiation.

The youngster, Joel, tried to leave his bed when the fumes gagged him, but fell to the floor. The sound of his falling awakened Mrs. Marian Rutter, 38.

The mother managed to summon a passerby before she herself collapsed.

Police revived the boy and his mother and another child, Celia, three and a half.

Cabinet To Resign In Japan; Shidehara Tries To Hold On
BY RUSSELL BRINES
Tokyo, Friday, Jan. 11 (AP)—Premier Kijuro Shidehara's cabinet met in regular session today, and a source at the premier's official residence—usually well informed—predicted it would resign en bloc.

This source said he expected the resignations would be announced today or tomorrow. He denied a Kyodo news agency story that Shidehara had decided to remain in office while dropping only a few ministers from his cabinet to comply with General MacArthur's political-purge decrees.

Kyodo said the general elections, scheduled tentatively for this month, would be delayed, possibly for two more months, in order to eliminate candidates affected by the purge orders.

The agency said Shidehara might try to hold on as premier until after the election.

Meanwhile the Allies' new Far East commission to determine occupation policy met in Japan for the first time.

HOURLY RAISE IS FIGURED AT 17½ PER CENT

The union executive board in Detroit Saturday—a move regarded as significant because it would pass on any possible settlement of the strike which began two days before Thanksgiving.

Walter P. Reuther, vice-president of the union in charge of General Motors negotiations, called the local representatives in to conference Sunday to act on the proposal. It was this group which voted to strike in November.

The panel held that tremendous production and increased output per-man may be expected in General Motors after the first 12 months and said "the company ought certainly to be included among those employers who are capable of making substantial wage increases for the benefit of their workers and of the nation."

OUTLOOK HOPEFUL
New York, Jan. 10 (AP)—The recommendation today of the president's fact-finding board for a 19½ cent hourly pay increase for 175,000 striking General Motors workers will be submitted to a national conference of GM workers in Detroit Sunday. The union struck for a 30 per cent pay rise.

Making the announcement tonight, Walter P. Reuther, vice president of the CIO United Automobile Workers, added:

"I will suggest to the General Motors corporation that we use the board's wage award as a base rate for 1941 production levels and that we negotiate provisions whereby this base rate can be increased as we move to higher levels of production in excess of the 1941 level."

At the national conference of GM workers in Detroit Sunday, Reuther said, the UAW members would "have an opportunity to take action on the recommendations of the fact-finding board."

Earlier, R. J. Thomas, president of the UAW, whose GM members have been on strike for 50 days, disclosed that he had called a special meeting of the union's international executive board to be held in Detroit Sunday.

Thomas also said he had summoned the union's General Motors council for a Sunday meeting in Detroit. Calling of the council was considered especially significant in that union sources said that body would have to act first on any possible strike settlement.

Once ratified by the council, the plan would be presented to union locals for action.

Business Building Burned In Detroit; 15 Flee To Safety
Detroit, Jan. 10 (AP)—Fifteen persons fled to safety tonight as a four-alarm fire swept through the Randolph Center building, causing an estimated $250,000 damage.

Firemen said the blaze started on the third floor of the four-story structure, damaging several business firms. One fireman was injured.

More Land Acquired For Porcupine Park; Beaver Take Curbed

Lansing, Jan. 10 (AP)—The State Conservation Commission today approved the acquisition of 350 additional acres for the Porcupine Mountain and Southeastern Michigan Recreation Areas, revised the beaver trapping regulations and approved the allocation of park funds.

The new land, purchased at a cost of $58,294, brought the total acquired for the proposed 45,596-acre Porcupine Mountain area to 21,563 and the amount of land acquired for the proposed 100,000-acre southeastern area to 33,420 acres.

Following demands from trappers and sportsmen who felt that large lakes in recent years were depleting the ranks of beaver in the state, the commission shortened the season and bag and closed additional counties to trappers.

The 1946 season will be 10 days instead of the 15 days allowed trappers last year and trappers will be allowed to take a total of six beaver and other combined with eight last year.

Grand Rapids Coal Supply Runs Short

Grand Rapids, Jan. 10 (AP)—City Manager Walter E. Sack said Thursday he has received assurance from the government that no family will suffer because of a fuel shortage here.

Sack said he had appealed to officials of the U. S. Solid Fuels Administration at Detroit and Washington for help in preventing "actual suffering" which he said is threatened if a cold wave should hit here.

The manager made his appeal, he asserted, upon learning from coal dealers that at the end of last week less than a five days' supply of coal remained here in 63 city yards.

Lt. Robert Smith Officially Dead

Lieutenant Robert E. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith of Seney, who has been reported missing after a flight over China since Dec. 16, 1944, has been officially declared dead by the United States government. This information was received in a communication from Major Gen. Edward F. Well of the U. S. Army.

Lt. Smith had made 35 trips over the Hump and had been recommended for the distinguished flying cross. He was co-pilot on a C-46 which left Luliang, India for Hsingching, China on a cargo mission. The last contact with the plane was over Ipin, China, 120 miles from its destination. It was thought that the plane exploded in the air or that icing conditions caused the pilot to overshoot his destination and crash into the mountains. The mountains in that vicinity were searched but no trace of the plane or its crew was found.

Coast Guard Starts Recruiting Program

Comdr. J. C. Wendland, Commanding Coast Guard Separation Center No. 9 at Detroit, announced that recruiting has been assigned as additional duty to the center. Coast Guardsmen from this area receive their discharges at the Detroit center.

With the assignment of approximately 30,000 as a peace time complement under the Treasury Department, the service foresees a shortage of about 10,000 men after all discharges of reserves are completed by June 30th. Of this total, the Detroit Separation Center has been ordered to enlist 2100 in a two month period beginning immediately.

Age limits are 17 to 30 for men formerly serving in the Coast Guard or other forces, and 17 to 25 for men with no previous service. Physical requirements are: Height—minimum 64 inches; vision—at least 20/30 uncorrected, both eyes.

Enlistments may be for 2, 3, 4, or 6 years. Education requirements are that the applicant has completed grammar school. Applications may be made by writing Coast Guard Separation Center Number 9, 7600 E. Jefferson avenue, Detroit 14, Mich.

Alarm bells were devised as health precautions to ring at the exits of some atomic research laboratories whenever a person passed whose clothing or body had been affected by radioactive radiations.

STICKLERS FOR LAW

The Attorney General's ruling is law, thus we quote a spokesman for the Delta County Road Commission: In fact it has so often been repeated that at times we were somewhat impressed and inclined to feel that such people were staunch supporters of law and authority.

However, recent experience has compelled us to judge these people in an entirely new light. When the law, as such, bears too heavily upon their special interests, they then take another view of matters.

We, of course, make reference to the Road Commissions' refusal to recognize a recommendation of the Board of Supervisors to appoint an Arbitration Board of two members. And further bear in mind, this same Commissions' rejection of Collective Bargaining in principal and in fact, with the Union of the employees' choice.

It may well be asked, who are these people who can so deliberately and at will flout the highest authority and power in the county? Who are the people who have the arrogance to assume power, in direct violation of the will of an elected majority? Is it not true that these so called Sticklers for law are men who will bend, tarnish, distort, and evade the law when it serves their purpose and enlarges their power.

GI's Get Results

THE protest by soldiers serving overseas against the slowdown in demobilization is getting results in Washington. General Eisenhower, army chief of staff, has issued orders to all overseas commanders to send home all men not needed for occupation or other foreign duty, and indicated further that a new demobilization program is in the making.

The fact that there are troops serving overseas who are not needed there but have been retained abroad only because of war department restrictions on point scores is evidence that the vigorous protests of overseas soldiers have been fully justified. The shipping shortage no longer is an excuse for keeping unneeded personnel overseas, a fact that has been acknowledged by the war department.

Under the revised orders issued to overseas commanders, all soldiers, regardless of point score, who can be spared from foreign duty will be sent home but first consideration will be given to soldiers with the highest scores and the longest service records. This is the fair approach to the demobilization problem.

The new program being worked out by the war department and which will be announced shortly undoubtedly will be designed to still the protests of overseas soldiers, but at the same time designed to fulfill the obligations and responsibilities of the United States in the enforcement of the peace in conquered lands.

A Gamut of Emotions

THE Suzanne Degnan kidnap-slitting in Chicago, one of the most cruel crimes of the century, has left in its wake a wide gamut of human emotions—love, charity, compassion on one hand and hate, fear, morbidity on the other.

People from all 48 states in the union and from foreign lands as well have offered their sympathies to the bereaved parents and their prayers for the innocent child who was snatched from her bed by an inhuman brute, choked to death and dismembered in a crime that has shocked a world where crime is everywhere. It is this spontaneous expression of compassion that gives hope that the forces of good will overpower the wicked to make a better world.

With the Degnan murder still unsolved, terror has gripped the great city of Chicago, fear that a maniacal killer may still be on the prowl to strike again and snatch the life of another helpless victim. It is a terror built of hysteria.

In all-too-few short weeks Chicago and the nation will forget the Degnan slaying and return to normal living but in the hearts of Mr. and Mrs. James Degnan, the child's parents, there will always be a scar that time can never erase.

New Labor Contract

THE Kaiser-Frazer contract with the CIO United Automobile Workers union provides something new in labor contracts, a bonus pool based on production and penalties for wildcat strikes which would be paid from the bonus pool.

Thus, in one bold stroke, the Kaiser-Frazer Corporation has established safeguards against unauthorized strikes which have been a major headache of industrial corporations in recent years, and also provided a stimulant for greater production.

On the matter of wages, the new automotive manufacturer met fully the demands of the union, offering an hourly scale equal to that of the Ford Motor company, the highest in the industry, and agreeing to increase wages to any level established within the industry as a result of the current General Motors strike.

The Kaiser-Frazer contract virtually assures the new company of uninterrupted production at its Willow Run plant at a time when its competitors are either shut down due to strikes, or threatened with closures due to walkouts.

Because Kaiser-Frazer did not produce automobiles in the 1942 base period established by the OPA for purposes of pricing the 1946 models, the company is in somewhat of a more advantageous position in negotiating its present labor contract than the other companies in the automotive field. The Kaiser-Frazer company can establish its prices, within certain limits, on the basis of its operating costs calculated on its labor contract. It is for this reason that the Kaiser-Frazer labor contract cannot necessarily be established as a standard for the entire industry.

Disproportionate Power

AT THE recent Labor-Management Conference in Washington, John L. Lewis minimized the present wave of strikes and pooh-poohed at the alarmists by pointing out that only 500,000 of 50,000,000 workers were out at that time. But of course that wasn't the whole story; as Mr. Lewis and all other union leaders know well enough.

It isn't hard to visualize what a prolonged strike of 200,000 meat packers could do to the eating habits of this country, to Europeans who are depending on shipments of meat from this country, and to the farmers and ranchers who raise that meat.

The Secretary of Agriculture has warned of a feed shortage. And if stock should have to be fed for any length of time after it is ready for market, the stockman's profits would go glimmering.

It is just as easy to visualize the industrial paralysis which could follow a prolonged strike of steel or coal workers.

Time was when one-hundredth of the country's labor force off the job would have made no appreciable difference in the country's state of economic health. But in this day of mass production and swift mass distribution by great corporate industries, the story is decidedly different.

The workers in these industries possess a power far out of proportion with their numerical strength. And the leaders of these workers are pressing their demands for higher wages through a very intelligent and carefully calculated exploitation of that power, no matter how many disarming statistics Mr. Lewis may produce.

BETTY GRABLE thinks that the holdup man who stuck a machine gun in her face during a robbery didn't recognize her. "Anyway," says Miss Grable, "he didn't say anything."

Such indifference, we should imagine, would hurt an actress' vanity even more than the loss of money or jewels. But there is one consoling possibility. Maybe Miss Grable wasn't wearing a sweater at the time.

SAULT IS RESIGNED
(Marquette Mining Journal)

Recording its acceptance of the fact that UNO headquarters will not be placed on Sugar Island, the Sault News says that the Sault area shot at the stars, and that it will never know how close it came to the target. If it really hoped, it is disappointed. If it is disappointed, it has distinguished company. On the present outlook the headquarters will be placed somewhere on the Atlantic seaboard, near a great city, but not in it.

Chicago has made a strenuous effort to gain the honor, and profit, to be obtained from the designation. But if its chances had been excellent if this factor had not to be reckoned with they were, it may be believed, made negligible by the condition that Chicago is the place of publication of the Tribune and the stamping ground of Col. McCormick.

Three nations carried the weight of the task of winning the World War, this country, Russia and Britain. It is over, even if peace has not been declared. But there has been no cessation in the vigor with which Col. McCormick and the Tribune have been carrying on the Colonel's private war against Russia and Britain. If there had been any serious support for the proposal to put the UNO headquarters in Chicago it may be assumed it would have been successfully opposed in London and Moscow.

A condition essential to success with UNO is the conduct of its affairs from a base in an area in which the press is well disposed, hopes for the best from it, and is willing to do all it can to make its work fruitful. If its base were within the area of the influence of the Tribune and the outpourings of Col. McCormick it would be several points down before it was fairly started.

Those who hope for the best for it may well be pleased that Chicago is not. Mayor Kelly and his associates may now know it but they, too, were shooting at the stars.

WE MUST STILL SAVE FATS!
(Detroit Free Press)

During the war one of the mobilized housewife's most valued contributions to the industrial task was her diligence in saving excess kitchen fats and in turning them over to her butcher. They filled a vital need in war production.

The conflict is over, but the demand for fats and oils is still as high as it was. The American Fat Salvage Committee states that what the housewife has been saving represents 10 per cent of total United States inedible tallow and grease production. It is an all-important figure. Unless it is maintained, the present serious shortage will become much more acute.

These are the reasons that an appeal is being made by the American Society of Newspaper Editors for housewives to continue their fat-savings—or if they have stopped, to resume it.

Extra coupons in exchange are no longer available with the end of red point rationing. But used fats are still worth four cents a pound.

The housewife's assistance is earnestly solicited.

SIRUP — SYRUP

The word sirup (the other spelling is "syrup") comes from the Arabic word shariba, "to drink," the same word which gives us "sherbet."

The popular pronunciation is "SUR-up," especially in the maple sirup country. A few dictionaries have at last begun to recognize "SUR-up," and list it as second choice. Cultured usage, however, prefers: SEAR-up.

The "SUR-up" pronunciation apparently is the result of the resemblance of the sir- of sirup to the title sir. But if the reader will check the dictionaries, he will find that the "i" of sirup has a breve above it—a short, curved mark which gives to "i" the short sound as heard in "mirror, miracle, irritate."

As to my use of "sear" to indicate the first syllable of sirup when pronounced with the short "i," it is well founded, for Merriam Webster's states that, in parts of America where "i" is not omitted, the "sear" sound of weary, fear, etc., is not noticeably different from that in sirup.

World Events Analyzed

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington — Shortly after the two atomic bombs were dropped over Japan, when the country was still in a state of shock and elation with the ending of the war, the May-Johnson bill for the control of atomic energy was introduced in Congress. It was written inside the war department and introduced in secrecy without notification to the civilian agencies directly concerned.

The curious circumstances surrounding the drafting and the introduction of the bill were due to the fact, according to its sponsors, that it had been thought the war would still be on and that therefore secrecy and speed would be necessary. The swift collapse of Japan overtook the atomic planners.

But the fact remains that if it had not been for the active protests of many scientists who had been connected with the atomic bomb project, the May-Johnson bill would in all probability have slipped through congress. The pattern that had prevailed during the war would then have been continued into the peace.

—SCIENTISTS PROTEST—
Those who fought the May-Johnson bill believe that it would have perpetuated Major General Leslie R. Groves' control over atomic energy in peace as in war. It contained a provision that military men could serve as administrators or as members of the commission without loss of military rank. This was to get around the provisions of a law adopted after the civil war when military men filled many civil posts, at the same time retaining their full rank.

Secretary of War Robert P. Patterson belittles the fears of those who saw a military dictatorship over atomic energy. He says the clause about rank was put in to make it possible for some officers to serve on the commission if that was considered desirable.

It is quite clear, however, that under the May-Johnson bill the administrator would have been the real boss of the project. The commissioners would have been part-time advisers, meeting once a month to supervise and approve or disapprove what had been done.

The two scientists whose protests were most effective were Dr. Harold C. Urey, Nobel prize winner now of the University of Chicago, and Dr. Leo Szilard. They had clashed with Groves during the work on the project.

Just before the congressional recess, Senator Brian McMahon, chairman of the Senate Atomic Committee, put in a bill that provides a different pattern of control over atomic energy. Based on the committee's thorough hearings into the whole background of atomic power, the bill provides for a commission of five full-time members who would have complete authority over all military and peacetime uses of atomic energy except when the President should find that military necessity demanded that specified quantities of atomic weapons be turned over to the armed forces.

The bill provides that the commissioners be paid $15,000 each. General Groves, who favors the May-Johnson bill, says that this would not be enough to get men of the calibre required. Moreover, he argues that since the appointments would be "at the pleasure of the President," they would get into politics at once.

—FEW QUALIFIED MEN—
As Groves sees it, there are three men who could direct the project. One is himself and he stresses his desire to get out since the strain of three years of unceasing work, Sundays, holidays, every day, has been too much. The other two are subordinate officers who worked with him.

Asked if there were no capable civilians, he said he could think of three possibilities with one great industrial firm and one possibility with another such firm. But they are so well paid that in General Groves' belief they would not be interested in becoming commissioners.

Both Groves and Patterson are on record as wanting to be relieved of the responsibility. Groves has done a phenomenal job for which he deserves all possible credit. Not even his severest critics deny that. He should not be saddled any longer with a burden that in peacetime in our democratic society belongs not on one army officer but on responsible civilian authority.

A great deal of emotionalism has been stirred by the phenomenon of atomic fission. The McMahon committee has done much to steer a sane, knowledgeable course. If there are flaws in the McMahon bill, hearings will develop them. If it is not possible to hire first-rate men for $15,000, then the amount should be raised. But it is time to get atomic energy on a peacetime basis and action should come as quickly as possible.

lyric, mirror." Indeed, one American dictionary, Kenyon and Knott's, shows "dear, fear, gear" as rhyming precisely with the first syllable of "sirup, lyric, mirror," in the first choice (general American) pronunciations.

The reader may find it hard to believe, but the British pronunciation of sirup has the "ear" sound in the first syllable, thus: "SKWEAR-ul."

Stranger still is the English pronunciation of sirup as "STEAR-up." Indeed, "STEAR-up" is the first choice of Webster's, Funk and Wagnalls, Macmillan's, Winston's, and the New Century. Only Kenyon and Knott's and the Thorndike Century list "STUR-up" in first place.

I cannot state that "STEAR-up" is never heard in America. But I can say that such a pronunciation has never once reached these inquisitive ears of mine.

1946 Can Be a Banner Year--

Good Morning!

By The Bugler

ANCIENT HISTORY—To most persons ancient history is something that dates back to the Ptolemies and will be encountered only in books. Their conception of prehistoric discoveries includes archaeological expeditions in Egypt and Iran, with a few side trips into Greece and Sicily.

They would never think of ancient history in relationship to Delta county, and an expedition to unearth prehistoric "ruins" at Sac Bay on the Garden Peninsula would be considered daft. Yet there is American antiquity and American antiquarians. They do have expeditions, and they do discover evidence of man in America dating back 15,000 to 20,000 years.

The "man" in America was, of course, the American Indian and his ancestors. Anthropologists believe these ancestors of the Indian came to this continent from Asia by way of Alaska, but how long ago they are not prepared to say. They have found evidence of man in America before the last glacial era, and they hope that sometime, somewhere they will uncover conclusive proof that the American continent was more than a comparatively recent habitation for man, speaking from a geological viewpoint.

MORE THAN RELICS—All over America, in every state in the union, there are amateur archaeologists conducting explorations and investigations with the sanction of the authorities. These are men of the aboriginal, archaeological and antiquity clubs and associations. Often there may be no local organization, but interested persons are members of state groups, such as the Aboriginal Research Club of Michigan.

VALUABLE WORK—Universities and colleges have their archaeology departments, and it was customary before the war for students in these departments to go on field expeditions during the summer months. They dug, studied and catalogued, photographed and examined, adding to the sum total of our knowledge of man's history in America.

The amateurs in the various communities, members of the clubs and societies previously mentioned, if they are sincere and conscientious in pursuing their hobby of discovery, often are of considerable assistance. Sometimes, however, they may destroy invaluable evidence by carelessness. W. C. McKern, curator of the Milwaukee Museum, compares the destruction of prehistoric Indian mounds or graves to "ripping the pages from an ancient book."

MUCH UNDISCOVERED — Official records of ancient Indian village sites in Michigan are incomplete. This is particularly true in relationship to Delta county, for some reason which is not clear. Perhaps Delta county has not been given the attention it merits from the archaeologist.

In Delta county amateur "explorers" have found nearly a score of prehistoric village sites whose locations do not appear on the records at the University of Michigan. Although one mound is officially reported to exist on the Garden Peninsula, there are probably others which have not been discovered, or if discovered unrecognized by the discoverer. The Indian painting on rock at Burnt

The Escanaba Municipal band and the Kiwanis Boys' band have moved their headquarters to the Washington school annex.

George Tucker of Marquette in an address made yesterday to members of Escanaba's Rotary club said the U. S. must return to the fundamental principles of the forefathers of this nation to preserve democracy in the United States.

Attorney Thomas J. Riley demanded women's names be put on the master list of jurors in Judge Richard C. Flanagan's circuit court yesterday.

Bluff, unique among prehistoric rock paintings in Michigan, has never been carefully examined, nor the area surrounding it.

WHERE THEY LIVED—The Indian in America had established communities, where he lived for all or most of the year.

Delta county amateurs have discovered village sites at the following locations, most of them not officially recorded:

Fuller Park at the mouth of Bark River; Ford River; Escanaba on Portage Bay; Gladstone and Kipling; mouth of the Whitefish river near Rapid River; East Wilsey bay on the Stonington Peninsula; Indian Point near Nahma; and on the Garden Peninsula at Garden, Puffy Bay, Gouley's Harbor, South River Bay, the shore near Snake Island, Sand Bay and Sac Bay.

That list includes 14 ancient village sites. Stone and copper artifacts and clay pottery sherds have been found at all of the sites, but most of the best arrowheads and copper knives and spear points have never been preserved or placed in a collection. The official archaeological map for Delta county lists three village sites.

THERE ARE MORE—It will be noted that all of the ancient village sites listed above are on or near the shores of Little and Big Bay de Noc. Many are near the mouths of rivers and streams.

It is almost certain that additional village sites, as yet unreported, are located on larger rivers and lakes inland in Delta county. It is probable there are village sites upstream on the Ford, Escanaba, Whitefish and Sturgeon rivers.

There is a difference, of course, between finding an arrowhead or a few isolated flint chips in a hunting country, and discovering a village site. Yet persons in Delta county who do know where village sites exist, and not contained in the list above, could assist by describing the location. This information will be presented to proper authorities at University of Michigan. Sometime in the future it may be possible that archaeologists from the University may visit the sites in Delta county. —Clint Dunathan.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington—Some people may have been surprised at the flare-up of G. I. mass-meetings following announcement that demobilization would be delayed. Certainly, however, the general staff in Washington should not have been surprised.

Anyone reading the servicemen's newspapers, anyone sampling the thousands of letters which pour in on congressmen and commentators, knew that for weeks G. I. resentment was near boiling point. Nobody stirred it up. It had been brewing for months.

Most surprising fact, however, is that, despite this long-brewing condition, the general staff in Washington has done nothing to correct a basic situation inside the army which goes much deeper than merely delayed demobilization. For much of the G. I. resentment springs from a sense of injustice and frustration.

And if we are to have a big peacetime army, the bigger it is, the more necessary it is to mend morale permanently. Some congressmen are convinced—as a result of hints dropped around the Pentagon building—that the war department deliberately slowed up demobilization in order to put the heat on for conscription. Pressure from the boys overseas would then be such that congress would pass conscription immediately, thus supplying replacement troops.

—CENSORSHIP COVERED UP—
However, whether conscripted or not, no army is efficient unless morale is high. The conscripted French army proved this in 1940. Therefore, whether drafted or voluntary, what both the American public and the war department are basically interested in is an army of men not torn by a sense of injustice and resentment.

Most people don't realize it, but during the war the American public was shielded from many things that took place inside the army. But the men inside the army knew what was going on, though they could not write home about it. So now, with censorship over, they are not only writing home, but to their service papers, and generally blowing off pent-up steam.

They have fought a war to save the democratic system at home, and now they would like to see a little more democracy right inside their own army. If we did not have so intelligent an army, there would not be this outburst. But the American army today is the most intelligent we have ever assembled; in fact, the most intelligent in the world—bar none. Intelligent men make the best fighters, but also the best grippers when they think they have been wronged.

Based on thousands of G. I. letters and talking to many men, here are some ideas which this columnist believes might improve morale and efficiency inside the army.

—ARMY CASTE SYSTEM—
Cut out, for instance the system whereby the 126th Engineering Combat Battalion has to move out of a healthy camp site near Manila and live in filthy buffalo wallow because the officers' club wants to expand its golf course.

Cut out, for instance, the system whereby Pvt. Karl von Esche is refused admission for his wife to the General Moore hospital in Cavanaugh, N. C. His wife dies. Lieut. John Bamberger's dog is admitted to the same hospital at about the same time.

Also cut out the system whereby Maj. Gen. William Ord Ryan uses an army plane to fly a bale of hay all the way across the Pacific to feed his captive kangaroo; whereby officers fly to football games while G. I.'s ride day-coaches on the much more important mission of seeing their wives; whereby Colonel Soriano, the friend of General MacArthur and personal representative of Dictator Franco, is able to fly three plane-loads of beer-bottle tops across the Pacific, and whereby the Pentagon generals dispatch one plane to Florida for Pompano, another to North Dakota for quail and a third to Texas for avocados and fresh tomatoes for the sole purpose of staging a fancy dinner for a British air marshal.

Also cut out the system whereby football players and baseball players get discharged ahead of high-point veterans merely because they have wire-pulling friends in the war department; and the system whereby General MacArthur gives a special airplane ride 8,000 miles home to the low-point son of Gen. Hanford McNider.

Finally cut out the system whereby enlisted men at times were given one helmet of water per day for bathing, drinking and laundry, but see the hose running all day to water officers' gardens.

These are some of the very strong reasons why men don't want to stay in the army. Nobody is stirring this up except certain officers themselves. These officers have it within their power to change this overnight. They need no legislation.

They also have it within their power to revamp our antiquated system and build one of the best armies in the world. But conscription or no conscription, they won't have a strong army unless favoritism, personal political pull and the caste system are made as defunct as certain types of pre-atom warfare.

Our American solidarity is not the result of any formal written alliance, but of a sentiment that is to be found in the hearts of us all—love of the land where we were born and where we wish to die.—Dr. Louis Teofilo Nunez, Caracas, Venezuela, publisher.

In all Europe today, apart from the Soviet Union, there are but a scant 1,500,000 Jews alive. They are the survivors from the nearly 7,000,000 Jews who once lived and knew the joys of normal, decent life.—Paul Baerwald, honorary chairman, United Jewish Appeal.

G. I.—VETERANS SERVICE

Q. My husband is being discharged January 12, and I want to know if I should keep the allowance check I will receive early in February?

A. The effective date of termination of entitlement to a family allowance is as of the end of the month in which the serviceman is discharged. You are entitled to the check you will receive in February.

Q. My sister's husband is a First Sergeant. She is expecting a baby soon. Will she be eligible for benefits of the Emergency Maternity and Infant Care program?

A. No. Dependents of servicemen in the first three grades of enlisted rank are ineligible for this care.

Q. Does the fact that I am receiving a pension from the Government for a disability incurred in Army service bar me from becoming eligible for unemployment compensation?

A. No; not if you are otherwise eligible.

OF GENERAL INTEREST

Q. What are naval stores?

A. Rosin, turpentine, pine oils, rosin oils, wood tar, and pitch. The term, "naval stores," had its origin in the days of wood sailing ships. These pine products were used in large quantity for caulking seams, treating rope, painting, etc.

Q. At what time of day was the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt born?

A. January 30, 1882, at 8:45 a. m.

Q. What was the longest non-stop ride made by a Pony Express rider?

A. A definite records are not available in the library of the Post Office Department, but it is said that Richard E. Egan once rode non-stop a distance of 330 miles.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Q. How can a loose joint in wooden furniture be repaired?

A. It is usually possible to spring the parts far enough to insert glue, and then to bind or clamp the parts together until the glue has hardened. If possible, scrape off the old glue before applying new. Vinegar applied vigorously with an old tooth brush usually will remove old glue. If the joint is very loose, use plastic wood cement instead of glue.

DELAY DECISION IN TWO CASES

Property Line Dispute,
Justice Case Taken
Under Advisement

Two cases were taken under advisement yesterday by Judge Frank A. Bell in circuit court at Escanaba following hearings in circuit court. Additional divorce actions also were heard.

The court took under advisement the case of Emma Vietzke vs. Auguste E. Vietzke, bill for an injunction, in which there was a dispute over the location of a property line fence.

Judge Bell also heard and took under advisement the case of John M. Lash of Gladstone vs. Justice of the Peace Oliver Estensen of Gladstone, a mandamus action in which Lash sought to have the justice disqualified from hearing a justice court case in which Lash is defendant. Lash charged that Justice Estensen was biased and prejudiced in the case and sought to have the files transferred and the case heard by another justice.

Attending court during the afternoon session was the civics class of Nahma high school, accompanied by Levellyn Bramer of the high school faculty.

58 Million Needed For Jewish Relief

First-hand reports on the immediate needs of Europe's surviving Jews were presented at the Thirty-First Annual Meeting of the Joint Distribution Committee in New York on Sunday, December 9th, by three recent arrivals from Europe.

They were: Dr. Joseph J. Schwartz, chairman of the European Council of the J. D. C.; Rabbi Judah Nadich, chief Jewish chaplain in the European Theater of Operations and former special adviser on Jewish affairs to General Dwight D. Eisenhower; and Edward M. M. Warburg, newly-elected Chairman of the committee.

At the meeting, the sum of $58,000 was estimated as necessary for the J. D. C. to meet the tremendous needs of distressed Jews overseas. The J. D. C. spent almost $28,000,000 in relief and rehabilitation activities all over the world in 1945.

In the United States the Joint Distribution committee receives its funds from the campaign collections of the United Jewish Appeal. Charles H. Gessner of Escanaba is a member of the national council of the Joint Distribution committee.

Tavern Bell Rings Again On Cathedral

Evansville, Ind. (AP)—A small brass bell, silent for more than 50 years, has been reconditioned and is ringing again from the belfry of Assumption Cathedral here.

The bell was brought here in 1820 for a tavern and summoned thirsty travelers for many years. It was given to Father Anthony Deydier, first Catholic priest stationed here, around 1842 and was placed in the belfry of the Church of the Assumption. It was hung in Assumption Cathedral in 1874. No one recalls why the cathedral had stopped using the bell.

St. Stephen's Church Holds Annual Parish Meeting And Dinner

Vestrymen for 1946 were elected at the annual parish meeting of St. Stephen's Episcopal church on Wednesday night. Those elected were L. J. Jacobs, M. A. Trams, Charles E. Lewis, E. P. Sawyer, F. W. Kammner, B. W. Hall, C. R. Wickman, Joseph Rouse, Charles L. Folio, and Barnett Mills in place of Samuel Mills, who requested to be released from service.

Preceding the business meeting, about one hundred members of the church enjoyed a dinner, which was served by the women of the church in the Guild Hall. Reports were given by Charles L. Folio as church treasurer; Mrs. Carl Wickman for St. Stephen's Guild; Mrs. Joseph Rouse for St. Mary's Guild; Mrs. Mayme Folio for the Women's Auxiliary; and Miss Delight Mashek for the Church School.

Charles E. Lewis discussed the renovation work that was done during the past summer on the church and the Guild Hall. The committee, which includes E. P. Sawyer, Samuel Mills and Mr. Lewis, hopes to have the remaining renovation work completed soon.

Mr. Lewis, who is also chairman of the Every Member Canvass Committee, requested the men of the church to meet at the Guild Hall on Sunday at 2 o'clock to assist him and the vestrymen in making the canvass of the parish.

After the Rector, Rev. James G. Ward, made a report and commented on the work of the parish, he presented the Rt. Rev. Herman R. Page, Bishop of the Diocese of Northern Michigan, who spoke on the work of the diocese.

The budget for 1946 was adopted by the congregation, and the meeting closed with a sound film on missionary work in China.

HERE'S AN IDEA
Here's an idea to help you turn yesterday's dress into part of the gala wardrobe you'd like for welcoming back that returning serviceman. Take any plaid or checked dress, make the sleeves short or even capped if you like, and sew on a gold or silver sequin on every square in the material. Cluster sequins at edge of sleeve and neckline for a street length after-five frock that will capture "his" approval.

A shopping bag of good-looking rayon faille that folds flat to a fourth of its original size and slips into her purse is a practical pretty for any woman. For added gaiety, it comes in assorted solid colors.

Goldthread Once Pioneer Medicine

BY FERN BERRY
Pulpwood cutters or other workers in the rich woods and swamplands, are well acquainted with the small notched, dark green leaf of the evergreen plant known as Goldthread. This plant grows in the swamps, of fertile leaf mold of the hardwoods, and in the old days it was a common remedy for cancer sore throat and certain types of sore throat. The roots are fine and are of a golden yellow color and no pioneer household was ready for winter without a clump or two of the dried roots of the goldthread. Steeped into a brew it was used as a cure for sore mouth and the more hardy ones were able to chew the root, thus extracting the juices. Ugh—it was the most bitter dose of medicine that any poor child ever had to take—unless you wish to except boneset tea—that was really bad.

In early days some householder forgot, or neglected to gather a supply of goldthread, and when a bad case of sore mouth developed, Father would take a shovel and go to the swamp or woods where he would toss aside the snow and there find the innocent looking little vine ready to give up its bitter roots for the betterment of mankind.
The goldthread is a member of the Crowfoot family of plants and has a pretty little white blossom which appears in May or June or as late as July.

HS TO HOLD OPEN HOUSE

Regular Afternoon
Classes To Be Held
In The Evening

Open house, in a manner which will be a distant innovation at the local institution, will be held at Manistique high school on the evening of Wednesday, January 16, when parents and friends are invited to visit the school and watch what takes place at an ordinary afternoon session.

Students from the city proper, will be dismissed during the afternoon and will assume their classes in the evening. The schedule for the evening has been arranged for three periods. The first classes will begin at 7 o'clock and continue on to 7:45. The next class will begin at 7:45 and continue on to 8:30 and the third period will begin at 8:30 and continue to 9:15.

Following the class periods will be a short program conducted in its entirety by the student body. This will last about half an hour after which those present will be invited to attend a social hour at the high school gym. The social hour will be in the nature of the "social tea" which was such a success at the high school Christmas party.

Students from the rural districts will not be required to participate in this open house as the lateness of the hour would probably work a hardship upon those who come from a distance. These students, however, will have their afternoon session the same as any other day.

The feature is being sponsored by the high school committee of the Manistique PTA.

Claim Local Interest In Soo Power Projects

Solemn warning that the people of Manistique—its officials as well as the rank and file of its citizenry—have been dangerously indifferent to a certain matter that has a distinct bearing on the city's future growth and prosperity was voiced at a meeting at the office of the city manager Wednesday afternoon, called for the purpose of discussing Manistique's interest in proposed new power development projects along the St. Mary's river at Sault Ste. Marie.

Present at the meeting were representatives of the city council, the Chamber of Commerce and of the Manistique Power and Light company. City Manager Charles D. Manson, who presided at the meeting—which was of an informal and unofficial nature—explained that the federal government has authorized engineers to draw plans for a new power project on the St. Mary's river to supplant the present one. The new plant will have a capacity of 14,500 KVA (Kilo Volt Amperes) while the present plant has a capacity of but 9,000 KVA. Also being considered at this time is the disposal of the surplus flowage of the waters of the river which at present is being utilized by the Union Carbide company plant at Sault Ste. Marie. The company, according to the report presented at the meeting, is asking a 30-year lease on these flowage rights.

For the present, Mr. Manson stated, the power generated by the proposed plant will be adequate to meet the needs of the area, but the time may come, and is more than likely to come, when the demands made by new industries, expanded industries, the extension of electrification into rural areas and the increase in the use of electric appliances in the home will tax the plant's capacity to the limit. In that event, he said, the area would be hamstrung in its effort to secure more electrical power through this great natural resource.

Protests against this restrictive setup have been made by communities adjacent to Sault Ste. Marie, particularly from areas served by the Cleveland Rural Electric Authority, and the Manistique City Council, at the request of the city council of Newberry, has passed a resolution touching on the subject, but as far as the City of Manistique is concerned, it has never had an opportunity to present its views, Mr. Manson said.

Manistique Has Interest
Manistique has a definite reason to be deeply interested in the matter, said the speaker. The local power and light company, he explained, furnishes electrical power generated at the Manistique Pulp and Paper company mill. Often times, when the mill is operating at its peak capacity and demands from the city are heavy, the power company gets its surplus current from Sault Ste. Marie.

This reliance for current from an outside source is due to increase sharply in the near future, it was explained. This is due to the fact that changes in the paper mill calling for the manufacture of a new grade of paper (wall paper) will be greatly increased. Local demands for power and light will be multiplied with the release from OPA restrictions of new appliances to be placed on the market; new manufacturing will also add to the load.

May Affect Current Rates
If this current can be supplied by the present cheap source of power at the Soo, adequate power would be available here at reasonable rates, but if the new power station at the Soo should be taxed the limit and the local power company would have to draw on power from steam electric plants and this, vastly more expensive power will reflect on local rates.

Should expansion in industry in this part of the Upper Peninsula live up to present indications, the new government built power plant in spite of its increased capacity, would not be able to cope with the needs of the area. For that reason, it was the opinion expressed at the meeting, it would not be wise to turn all the surplus flowage of the river to the disposal of a private corporation. The power resources of the St. Mary's river should be regarded by the government as a TVA project to serve the people of the area in general, rather than one or two corporations, it was stated.

A public meeting, to present the situation with respect to Manistique's interests, will be called some time in the near future.

Good Attendance Marks Girl Scout Meeting Here

Thirty adult members of the Girl Scout organization in Manistique were present at the meeting of workers in the local groups at the junior high school music room Tuesday evening.

Mrs. A. F. Hall, Scout commissioner, conducted the meeting, and in a short talk reviewed the aims of Scouting for the benefit of those who are new in the work. She stressed particularly the aim to develop girls into the highest type of citizens.

Each woman present was introduced to the group and given her opportunity to tell her part in the work.

Plans were discussed for a Girl Scout rally to be held some time in February.

Announcement was also made that there would be a meeting of the Timber Trail association at the Home Economics room in the high school this coming Saturday. This organization is composed of Girl Scout organizations in Marquette, Ishpeming, Negaunee, Munising and Manistique. It will be the first time that this organization has been entertained in Manistique.

Lunch was served in the Home Economics room at the close of Tuesday evening's activity.

Cinnamon roll dough can be cut easily into individual rolls with a piece of clean twine or string. Place string under the long roll of dough at the desired place and pull both ends up and across. As the string tightens, it cuts the dough into smooth rolls without flattening them.

SANITATION HELPS CONTROL MASTITIS

Sanitary milking procedures and good herd management are keys to the prevention or control of mastitis in dairy cattle, says J. L. Heirman, county agricultural agent.

Germs that enter the udder by way of the teat canal, and leave the same way, cause the disease. For this reason, it is highly important that the hands of the milker, the milking machines, floors and bedding be kept sanitary.

When any cows in the herd become affected, proper and early treatment may eliminate the disease. The first step is early and accurate diagnosis. The second step is elimination or separation of the affected cows from the healthy animals.

If cows that are known to have the disease, or are suspected of having it, are to be retained in the herd, the following procedure is recommended:

1—Arrange cows in healthy, doubtful and infected groups, and milk in that order.

2—Wipe the udder of each cow one minute before milking. Use a clean cloth moistened in a warm chlorine solution, using the chlorine as recommended on the package. This results in clean hands as well as clean udders.

3—If a milking machine is being used, dip the teat cups in a full pail of water and then in a full pail of chlorine solution. Do this before milking each cow. All parts of the teat cup interior should be reached by the water and solution.

In managing the herd, promptly treat all injuries to the udder; stable and bed cows to prevent injuries and contamination; keep the barn dry and admit as much sunshine as possible; raise replacements; do not add mature cows to the herd unless absolutely necessary, and then only after testing; use lye solutions for cleaning and keep lime or superphosphate on the floors. For further details on the control of mastitis, attend Dairy Day and see an educational display on the control methods. Dairy Day will be held in Lincoln school gym, Manistique, January 23, starting at 10 a. m. Plan to attend.

For a glazed topping on rolls and bread, brush the dough with egg which has been beaten slightly with water. Two tablespoons of mixture to one egg gives a desirable mixture.

Escanaba And Gladstone Basketball Teams Meet Here Tonight

BOTH QUINTETS ARE UNBEATEN

Reserves Play Prelim At 7:30; Main Game At 8:45

Every indication points to a wild and woolly thriller tonight when the Eskymos and Gladstone Braves, two undefeated basketball teams, collide at the Escanaba high school gymnasium. The main game will start at 8:45 o'clock, preceded by a preliminary game between the reserve teams of the two schools.

As this is the first game for both teams after the holiday vacation, the opposing coaches figure their clubs will be somewhat off color but the intense rivalry between the schools guarantees a bang-up thriller.

Coach Rouman reported yesterday that Don Scott and Roger Peterson, both of whom were out of action the last several days, will be in uniform tonight and Scott will probably be a starter. His right hand, treated for the removal of a boil Wednesday, is still painful but the infection has drained satisfactorily. If Scott is in the starting lineup, the Eskymos team will be the same as in pre-holiday games with Dufour paired with Scott at guard berths, Jack Finn at center; Ross and Ohman, forwards.

The Eskymos have a man's size assignment cut out for them tonight in attempting to check the scoring rampage of Engstrom and Haglund, Braves' sharpshooters.

Coach Henry Wille's lineup for his reserve squad in the preliminary game against the Gladstone reserves will be Buckland, Jim Hirm, Belanger, Carlson and Schills. If Belanger, who has been ill, is unable to get into action, Ray Hirm will take over that berth.

Between halves of the main game, grade school teams, one representing the Jefferson school and the other an all-grade team from other schools, will get into a brief scrimmage.

Officials for the feature game will be Hiney and Vanni, of Ne-gaunee.

GLADSTONE HOPES FOR WIN
Gladstone, Mich. — Hoping to knock Escanaba high from the ranks of Upper Peninsula's undefeated basketball teams, Gladstone high school travels to the county seat tonight to clash with their traditional rival, Gladstone also is still undefeated.

Rusty at first after the vacation layoff the Braves have rounded into shape nicely and in a scrimmage Wednesday appeared to have acquired their pre-holiday form. All are in good physical condition.

Coach Eldon Keil said he realizes they are going up against a good club, a veteran aggregation which will have a decided advantage in height, but believes that the speed of the Braves, plus their ball handling and shooting ability will bring victory if they are "on" tonight.

Coach Keil will rely on his usual starting lineup: Capt. Engstrom and Haglund at forward, Gillis at center and Olson and Olive at guard.

The second team will play Escanaba seconds in a preliminary. Coach Frank Schness has named Madden and Brown, forwards, William, center, and Anderson and Marmlick, guards, to start the game.

TROJANS PLAY ROCK SATURDAY

County Teams Will Meet At Bonifas Gymnasium Here

The St. Joseph Trojans will return to the basketball wars Saturday night with a game against the Rock Little Giants at the Bonifas gymnasium.

This will be the Trojans' second appearance of the season on their home floor, having defeated Stephenson on Dec. 15 in the only other home game. The Trojans also will play their remaining January games away from home, but will be home for three games consecutively in February.

Gladstone Reserves Take Perkins, 29-20

Gladstone—Outscoring their opponents from the floor, Gladstone reserves, coached by Frank Schness, defeated Perkins high school, 29 to 20, Wednesday night. The game was rough, a total of 35 fouls being called.

ELECTION ENDS NCAA MEETING

Rules Committee Opens Three-Day Session In St. Louis Today

St. Louis, Jan. 10 (AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association finished off its 40th annual convention today by re-electing Dr. Wilbur C. Smith, of Louisiana State.

Results of the secret balloting silenced reports that anti-bowl, anti-big money faction might assert itself against Dr. Smith because of his affiliation with a school belonging to the money-minded Southeastern Conference.

Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson, commissioner of the Western Conference (Big Ten), was re-elected secretary-treasurer of the association.

The football rules committee of the N. C. A. A., last of a half-dozen college sports bodies to meet here this week, will open a three-day session tomorrow.

Seven minor rules changes, approved by the advisory rules committee of the American Football Coaches Association, will be on the agenda.

Lou Little of Columbia University, chairman of the coaches' rules committee, said the proposed changes would permit a substitute to rush into play after simply being acknowledged by an official instead of formally reporting and would require the stopping of the clock for only the actual time required for the substitute to enter the game instead of a full two minutes.

A new plane is under construction, called the Hercules-4, which will weigh 200 tons, have eight engines, and carry 700 passengers. It will cost $20,000,000.

MICHIGAN HAS BUSY WEEKEND
Basketball Team Expects No Easy Pickings At Evanston

Ann Arbor, Mich., Jan. 10 (AP)—Michigan's winter sports teams are in for a busy weekend of competition with Wolverine basketball, swimming and hockey clubs all slated for Friday and Saturday engagements on the road.

The Wolverine basketball team, beaten twice in three Big Ten starts, picks on University of Chicago at Chicago to fatten its average, but doesn't expect easy pickings against Northwestern Saturday at Evanston, Chicago, which yielded a record 74 to 41 victory to the Wolverines a year ago, now has lost its last 52 games.

Northwestern, on the other hand, is undefeated this season with a 52 to 44 Big Ten triumph over Purdue under its belt.

The Wolverine swimming team, 43 to 41 loser to Great Lakes in its dual meet opener a week ago, meets Northwestern Friday and Great Lakes Saturday.

Coach Vic Heyliger's unbeaten Michigan hockey club departed this morning for Colorado Springs, where it will meet Colorado college Friday and Saturday in its first intercollegiate matches of the season. The Wolverines have shelled Canadian amateur competition for seven straight victories.

Hockey Players To Meet Tonight

George Gorenchan, manager of the Escanaba hockey team, announced last night there will be a hockey meeting and practice at the Webster school rink tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

The Escanaba team plans to play the Gladstone pucksters Sunday afternoon, January 13. The game will begin at 1:30 o'clock and will be played off at the Escanaba indoor ice rink.

BAY ICE RIGHT FOR ICEBOATING

Freeze Following Rain Gives Smooth Surface For Winter Sport

Recent rains followed by freezing weather has smoothed the ice in Little Bay de Noc at Escanaba's "front door," providing an ideal surface for iceboating and skating, two winter sports which need just the right type of ice for full enjoyment.

This ice condition, free of snow and without broken areas and cracks, seldom occurs on the bay. For this reason iceboating is a somewhat sporadic sport, and many of the iceboats owned locally will need considerable repair after being unused for several years.

Among those who already have their iceboats out are John Jacobs, Lawrence Boucher, John Walsh and Fritz Weissert. The last named iceboater reports that he built a small one "for the kids," and joins them in sailing and managing the craft.

One of the largest iceboats in Escanaba is an international Class B racing boat owned by Charles Stoll. While it has not been in use for a couple seasons, it is the fastest iceboat on the bay and would make still better time this winter if the present ice condition holds. The ice this year is reported to be the best in many years, and would only be spoiled for iceboating if there was a fall of moisture-laden snow. Dry snow would blow off the smooth surface.

Skate-sailing, once a popular sport with Escanaba young men, requires only smooth ice, a pair of skates and a sail which is held by the skater. High speeds are attained and spills are frequent unless the skater is experienced.

Spartan Five Heads For Record Total

East Lansing, Jan. 10 (AP)—Michigan State college's basketball team is heading for a new season's point total for the second consecutive season.

Last year, the Spartans notched 865 points in 17 games for a new mark. In seven games this season, Coach Ben Van Alstyne's hardwooders have accounted for 374 points and still have 14 contests to go. They are 80 points ahead of their 1944-45 record already as they had scored 294 markers in the first seven games last season.

But the "razzle-dazzle" type of play is also contributing to the opponents' total. Spartan foes scored 774 points last season and in the seven contests this year have hung up 343, 13 fewer than during the corresponding period a year ago.

The Wolverine swimming team, 43 to 41 loser to Great Lakes in its dual meet opener a week ago, meets Northwestern Friday and Great Lakes Saturday.

FIREBALL SIGNS FOR 5 FIGURES

New All-America Springs Surprise; Detroit Will Hold Contract

New York, Jan. 10 (AP)—Fireball Frankie Sinkwich, most valuable player in the National Football League while with Detroit in 1944, jumped to the New York Yankees of the All-America conference today in a surprise move that threatened to send the player fight between the rival professional circuits into court.

At a news conference attended by Sinkwich, the Yankees announced they had signed the two-time All-America halfback from the University of Georgia to a three-year contract. President Dan Topping disclosed only that Sinkwich's salary ran into "five figures" but reliable estimates placed it at around $12,000 a year.

As soon as the news reached officials of the Detroit Lions, they declared the National League team was "prepared to go to court" to enforce its contract with Sinkwich, which they contended had one more year to run.

The Lions are interested in holding him only if he has recovered from a knee injury that curtailed his career in service football.

Detroit Coach Gus Dorais, here for the annual meeting of the National League, said he had talked with Sinkwich several times since the latter's discharge from the Army and assumed that Frankie would play with the Lions if his knee healed.

Sinkwich's contract with Detroit ran through 1945. The Lions contend that since he was in the service in 1945 he must play one more year at Detroit to fulfill his contract. The Yankees feel that he has fulfilled his obligation to Detroit.

Sinkwich had announced his "retirement" from the gridiron Dec. 18 after his discharge from the Army, but acknowledged today he only said that "to keep other teams from bothering me" as he already had signed with Coach Ray Flaherty of the Yankees at Chicago Dec. 9.

The ex-Georgia ace who rose to national fame from Chaney high school in Youngstown, Ohio, played with the Second Air Force eleven last fall but appeared in only four games before he was sidelined with a serious injury to his left knee.

BY SID FEDER
New York, Jan. 10 (AP)—The National Football League opened its annual meeting today with the rules committee recommending several changes in gridiron law and the club owners apparently split, in side-chamber discussions, over whether to take the young All-America conference seriously—or laugh it off.

The bolt of one-time double-All America Frankie Sinkwich from the Detroit Lions to the All-America New York Yankees hit the National League by surprise and Lions' officials said they're ready to go to court about it.

Chief of the rules committee's recommendations for action by the general session of the club owners later in the week was one which would make an automatic touchback of any forward pass that is thrown from the end zone and hits a goal post.

The rules committee also recommended a switch in the law for offensive blocking, which would force a blocker to have only one arm clasped to his body and permit his other arm to hang free.

The committee also threw in the owners' lap any decision on a change in the substitution rule, giving the moguls their choice of continuing current free unlimited replacements or limiting subs to three at a time.

The general sessions of the National League club owners, during which the moguls will draft players for 1946, draw up a schedule and give Commissioner Elmer Layden a new contract, will get under way tomorrow.

Manager Arnold Johnson of the Sox, also an ex-serviceman, is looking for games for his outfit, and is inviting managers of other ambitious teams in the vicinity to write him at 1201 Eleventh avenue south, Escanaba.

It is estimated that there was an increase of 300,000 business establishments in the United States during 1945.

Prepare To Start Ice Cutting Here

The S. M. Johnson Ice company of Escanaba yesterday delayed the start of ice cutting operations at the yacht basin because of mild weather, but ice production will get underway as soon as colder weather arrives. Between 35 and 40 men will be employed in cutting, hauling and storing the ice.

The ice at the yacht basin is about 14 inches thick, which is about average for this season of the year. The work will continue through the current month and probably into mid-February.

The ice has been staked out on the surface at the yacht basin as a guide in cutting. The ice is cut with a power saw and hauled to the storage house by truck and large trailers.
